DICTATION.

The composition of man is threefold : physical, intellectual, and moral. It is the justly proportioned composition of these three that constitutes the real excellence of perfect manhood—that creature, made a little lower than the angels, the noblest image of God.

Perhaps no character in history can be pronounced truly great without this combination; certainly not if the moral attributes be deficient.—Z. B. VANCE.

“Carolina! Carolina! Heaven’s blessings attend her!
While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her;
Though the scorner may sneer at and witlings defame her,
Our hearts swell with gladness whenever we name her.”
